THIS IS OUR FAITH

HOW DOES GOD FORGIVE SINS?

ONE OF THE MOST remarkable things ever written in the New Testament was a single word in the second chapter of the Letter to the Colossians. The Colossian Christians were a little confused about their new faith, and the author was working hard to explain who Christ was and what he had done. One of the most important things Christ had done, the letter said, was to forgive sins. To explain this, the writer chose his words carefully—particularly the verb describing what Christ did with our sin. He "obliterated" it, the New American Bible translation says (Col. 2:14). Other words with milder meanings could have been used—that Christ "crossed out" our sin or, simply, "forgave" it. But the very deliberately picked word conveys the idea that God erases traces from the record. of our sin

That will happen because God is who God is. God overflows with mercy and love. Look at yourself honestly. Consider the ways you have failed in your responsibilities, let other people down, cut corners, given into pressure, disguised the truth, lashed out at others, abused yourself. Look at all that without embarrassment—and bring it to God without fear. God will obliterate it.

Next week's scripture insights:

Readings for Sunday, March 17, 2019 • Second Sunday in Lent: Gn 15:5–12, 17–18 • Ps 27:1, 7–8, 8–9, 13–14 • Phil 3:17–4:1 or 3:20–4:1 • Lk 9:28b–36

In today's Gospel, we go up to the mountain with Peter, John and James. There we see Jesus "transfigured," speaking with Moses and Elijah about His "exodus."

The Greek word "exodus" means "departure." But the word is chosen deliberately here to stir our remembrance of the Israelites' flight from Egypt.

By His death and resurrection, Jesus will lead a new Exodus – liberating not only Israel but every race and people; not from bondage to Pharaoh, but from slavery to sin and death. He will lead all mankind, not to the territory promised to Abraham in today's First Reading, but to the heavenly commonwealth that Paul describes in today's Epistle.

Moses, the giver of God's law, and the great prophet Elijah were the only Old Testament figures to hear the voice and see the glory of God atop a mountain (see Exodus 24:15-18; 1 Kings 19:8-18).

Today's scene closely resembles God's revelation to Moses, who also brought along three companions and whose face also shone brilliantly (see Exodus 24:1; 34:29). But when the divine cloud departs in today's Gospel, Moses and Elijah are gone. Only Jesus remains. He has revealed the glory of the Trinity – the voice of the Father, the glorified Son, and the Spirit in the shining cloud.

Jesus fulfills all that Moses and the prophets had come to teach and show us about God (see Luke 24:27). He is the "chosen One" promised by Isaiah (see Isaiah 42:1; Luke 23:35), the "prophet like me" that Moses had promised (see Deuteronomy 18:15; Acts 3:22-23; 7:37). Far and above that, He is the Son of God (see Psalm 2:7; Luke 3:21-23).

"Listen to Him, "the Voice tells us from the cloud. If, like Abraham, we put our faith in His words, one day we too will be delivered into "the land of the living" that we sing of in today's Psalm. We will share in His resurrection, as Paul promises, our lowly bodies glorified like His.

Thoughts to Consider this week~ A VALUE-ADDED TRADITION

Scripture's dramatic account of the Final Judgment includes powerful statements about the importance of caring for those who are weak, ill, imprisoned—values that are at the core of all Christian social ethics. Over the centuries great movements for human progress and compassion have been inspired by these fundamental Christian values. Western Christianity's shortcomings are frequently on display, as perhaps they should be. But let's not forget the great Christian charitable tradition, which has done so much good for so many. Find a way to make your own contribution to charitable works: From Catholic Charities to Catholic Worker houses, the options are many.

THINK SMALL

Children are the first to tell us that it can be tough to be little. Often overlooked or taken advantage of, not always heard or taken seriously, the small ones in this world are at the mercy of the rest of us. In biblical terms the anawim ("poor little ones") included children, women, the poor, and the stranger. It's quite unusual when a "rich big one" like the king of Nineveh in the Book of Jonah surrendered his place of privilege and made himself small before God. Such humility gets results: His kingdom is saved. Consider opportunities today to "get small" in your dealings with others.
