THIS IS OUR FAITH

--- Deacon's Desk ---

IS THERE A "RIGHT TIME" TO BE CALLED BY GOD?

There is a right time to be called by God, and that time is right now! Regardless of who you are, where you've been, or where you are going, God calls you in this very moment.

What does it mean to be called by God? It means that God desires to connect personally with each and every one of us and that our whole life is a response to God. We commit ourselves to a life relationship with person, family, or community. We seek education in order to prepare ourselves for a certain form of service in the world. We build a career using the gifts and talents we have been given. In these and other ways we give our lives to God.

There are also smaller but no less significant choices we make day-to-day in response to God's call: a kind word to a colleague, an opportunity to enjoy the rain, an extra effort to make a good project great.

The key is to be open to God's invitation to connect with God here and now. In this way we open ourselves to think, feel, and act from a graced place. It can be helpful to have a spiritual friend or mentor with whom you can talk about calling and also to read the stories of how others have been called.

Next week's scripture insights:

Readings for Sunday, November 25, 2018 • The Solemnity of Christ the King: Dan 7:13-14 ✠ Ps 93:1-2,5 ✠ Rev 1:5-8 ✠ Jn 18:33-37

What's the truth Jesus comes to bear witness to in this last Gospel of the Church's year?

It's the truth that in Jesus, God keeps the promise He made to David – of an everlasting kingdom, of an heir who would be His Son, "the first born, highest of the kings of the earth" (see 2 Samuel 7:12-16; Psalm 89:27-38).

Today's Second Reading, taken from the Book of Revelation, quotes these promises and celebrates Jesus as "the faithful witness." The reading hearkens back to Isaiah's prophecy that the Messiah would "witness to the peoples" that God is renewing His "everlasting covenant" with David (see Isaiah 55:3-5).

But as Jesus tells Pilate, there's far more going on here than the restoration of a temporal monarchy. In the Revelation reading, Jesus calls Himself "the Alpha and the Omega," the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. He's applying to Himself a description that God uses to describe Himself in the Old Testament – the first and the last, the One Who calls forth all generations (see Isaiah 41:4; 44:6; 48:12).

"He has made the world," today's Psalm cries, and His dominion is over all creation (see also John 1:3; Colossians 1:16-17). In the vision of Daniel we hear in today's First Reading, He comes on "the clouds of heaven" – another sign of His divinity – to be given "glory and kingship" forever over all nations and peoples.

Christ is King and His Kingdom, while not of this world, exists in this world in the Church. We are a royal people. We know we have been loved by Him and freed by His blood and transformed into "a Kingdom, priests for His God and Father" (see also Exodus 19:6; 1 Peter 2:9).

As a priestly people, we share in His sacrifice and in His witness to God's everlasting covenant. We belong to His truth and listen to His voice, waiting for Him to come again amid the clouds.

Thoughts to Consider this week ~

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE
BY WHOSE AUTHORITY

Every instance of bad leadership reinforces the vital importance of good leaders. In church and in government, at work and at home, we need people of wisdom and vision to take us into the future. Leaders must lead, not merely from a platform or agenda, but with a profound respect for the common good as an unshakable principle. Championing the common good makes families more holy, workplaces more just, societies more civil, and governments more noble. What kind of world do we want to live in? At what kind of authority will we bend our knees?

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
OURS WERE THE WOUNDS HE BORE

People throw parties when it's time to celebrate. But grief and loss are private places we often go alone. How comforting to know that Mary our Mother went all of those places ahead of us and is waiting there to enfold us in mercy and consolation! Pick up a rosary today and pray the Sorrowful Mysteries for those who are suffering alone and unseen: in places of humiliation and condemnation, in sickness and disability, in mourning and loneliness, and especially at the hour of death.

Holiday Meals for the Home-Bound served by Aid for Friends

At this wonderful time of year when most of us are blessed to share meals with family and friends, we can very easily share our bounty with those less fortunate. Our home-bound neighbors are supported by Aid for Friends with visitors who bring frozen meals from a freezer located in our parish garage. A home prepared meal is an important and welcome support all year and can bring special cheer during the holidays.

Please multiply your blessings by making up meal trays and leaving them in the freezer in our parish garage. Currently we need about 40 meals per month. Having a variety of donors means a variety of meals and little work for each contributor.

The trays are available on top of the freezer in the parish garage, which is open every day. Pick up a pack of trays with all the necessary supplies and return a tray (or a few) filled with meal (s) to the freezer. Sharing your Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's or other meals with our local home-bound will be greatly appreciated by them! Your turkey (or ham or ...) and potatoes (or rice or...) and vegetables (gravy and a dessert welcome as well!) will provide a special treat for our home-bound friends to enjoy in this blessed season.

Any questions, please contact Chris McDade (cmcdade29@verizon.net, 215-699-7969) or Anita Capps (acloverfam@aol.com, 215-699-8433).

“CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE”

Please visit our “GIVING TREE” which is located in the church vestibule this weekend.

The “GIVING TREE” is our annual Christmas ministry at St. Rose of Lima Parish. We have been doing this since 1987. By participating in this program, you can reach out to less-fortunate families from our sister parish St. Malachy located in Philadelphia. We also have Incarnation/St. Helena Parish in Philadelphia who needs help and would appreciate any gifts that you would be able to give to them. Families being sheltered by the Inter-Faith Housing Alliance in Ambler also receive gifts. This is a wonderful opportunity to play “St. Nicholas” and experience the true meaning of Christmas.

The “GIVING TREE” will be decorated with TAGS that contain the names and desired gifts for members of these families. SOME TAGS WILL BE ASKING FOR TOYS/GAMES/DOLLS for INFANTS and CHILDREN TO 12 YEARS OF AGE. Please DO NOT WRAP THESE GIFTS. Fr. Kletzel from St. Malachy will give these UNWRAPPED TOYS to the children at their Christmas Celebration.

AFTER YOU SELECT A TAG FROM OUR “GIVING TREE”:

- 1) DETACH THE RED SLIP.
- 2) FILL IN YOUR NAME AND PHONE NUMBER and PLACE THE SLIP IN THE DECORATED GIVING TREE BOX ON THE TABLE IN THE VESTIBULE OF CHURCH.
THIS INFORMATION HELPS IN TRACKING THE RETURN OF THE GIFTS.

Kindly RETURN ALL GIFTS TO THE PARISH CENTER (GYM) on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8th before or after the 5:00 PM MASS, and on SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9th after the morning Masses until 12:45 pm.
